

Keeping Accurate Land Records

Register of Deeds Office

Tamara Pedretti, Robin Kadmas with plat books

The Register of Deeds keeps records of land ownership and transactions back to 1851. Valid title to land today is based on chain of ownership. Accurate records avoid battles over boundaries and rights. Each year approximately 25,000 land records are recorded in the Office.

Servant Leadership is our business.

La Crosse County employee

