RE: RECOGNITION OF SEPTEMBER 2008 AS FOSTER PROVIDER APPRECIATION MONTH

WHEREAS, La Crosse County for years has benefited from the commitment and dedication of hundreds of certified adult foster providers and licensed child foster homes who care for our most vulnerable citizens; and,

WHEREAS, through the dedication of these foster providers, many of our vulnerable citizens can remain within their own communities and least restrictive settings rather than being placed into institutions; and,

WHEREAS, the time and commitment of our foster parents not only benefits those placed into their homes, but also provides the most cost-effective alternative for placements, saving taxpayer expense; and,

WHEREAS, the entire community benefits from the endless commitment of our foster homes and foster parents.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the La Crosse County Board of Supervisors dedicate the month of September 2008 to honor and recognize our 115 licensed child foster homes and 136 certified adult foster providers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the La Crosse community as a whole celebrate the contributions made by each of our foster providers and express this sincere appreciation.
